

Southwest
Philosophical Studies

for April 1980

PHILOSOPHY DEPARTMENT

SOUTHWEST PHILOSOPHICAL STUDIES

FOR APRIL 1980
VOL. V

Alvin E. Keaton
Editor

Published in the Philosophy Department of Southwest Texas State University under the auspices of the New Mexico–West Texas Philosophical Society.

CONTENTS

Presidential Address
Philosophy as Symptom	W. Springer	1
Articles
The Moral End of Law	K. Lovin	11
The Philosophical Genesis of Ideal Types	H. N. Tuttle	18
Richard Rorty and Dewey's Metaphysics of Experience	T. Alexander	24
In Defense of Despair: Preliminary Reflections on the Meaning of Life	J. Gordon	36
The Judicial Judgment as Performative Utterance	V. Luizzi	44
Existence Proofs and the Ontological Argument	J. M. Orenduff	50
Can a Person Know that He is in Pain?	H. Dalrymple	55
Causation and Determinism	D. Geuras	64
Kuhn and the Context of Justification	P. Hutcheson	70
Some Thoughts on Funniness	G. Franzwa	77
Space, Time, and Consciousness	J. F. Miller	81
Does the Creator Practice Planned Birth Control?	J. Barnhart	90
Special Presentation
An Aspect of Latin American Philosophy: Philosophy of Liberation	I. A. de Nava E. D. Medina L. Perez	94